

Ghana Panafest and Juneteenth Celebration 2023

Day 1- Monday, July 24, 2023

Arrival and Formalities. Check-in and welcome reception. Private tour of the W.E.B Dubois Museum and dinner at Roots restaurant with entertainment by the Resident Dance Troupe.

Day 2- Tuesday, July 25, 2023

After breakfast, the Accra City Tour will include the National Museum, Black Star Square, principal neighborhoods in Accra, Makola Market and the Osu Oxford street.

Day 3 -Wednesday, July 26, 2023

Depart for Kumasi in the Ashanti Region, for demonstration and participation in Kente weaving and Adinkra stamping. Everyone will take away their own customized designs.

Day 4 -Thursday, July 27, 2023

A culturally enriching tour of the Asantehene's Palace and the Kumasi Cultural Center. Optional Golfing at the Kumasi Royal Golf Club on this day.

Day 5- Friday, July 28, 2023

Trip to Assin Manso to visit the river where the enslaved had their last bath before being taken to the Elmina and Cape Coast Castles/ Dungeons before departing Africa.

Day 6- Saturday, July 29, 2023

Free Day

Reverential Night activities to pay homage to the Ancestors.

Day 7- Sunday, July 30, 2023

Tour of Cape Coast Castle/Dungeon where even today the presence and suffering of our enslaved ancestors can still be felt. Optional Golfing at the Coconut Grove Golf Course

Day 8 -Monday, July 31, 2023

After early morning breakfast, Tour of Elmina Slave Dungeon followed by White ceremony on the beach. Participants will be free for the remainder of the day and evening to participate in Panafest Activities!!

Day 9 -Tuesday, August 1, 2023

Participants free to relax and engage in Emancipation Day Activities.

Day 10- Wednesday, August 2, 2023

Last minute group shopping, relaxation and optional golfing at the Sakumono Golf Course

Day 10 -Wednesday, August 2, 2023

Departure to the U.S

Payment Schedule

Deposit (non refundable)-November15, 2022

1st installment - January 15, 2022

2nd Installment - March 15, 2023

Final payment by May 15, 2023

Email: travel@crossculturalgh.com

Mobile: +233 24 431 6066